

How much does a spectrometer cost in Dubai

AI Overview

The cost of a spectrometer in Dubai varies widely, typically ranging from AED 3,000 for basic benchtop models to over AED 50,000 for advanced UV-Vis or high-resolution instruments.

Price Range and Factors

- Entry-level benchtop spectrophotometers: These are suitable for basic color testing or simple laboratory applications and generally start around AED 3,000 to AED 10,000, depending on features and accessories.
- Mid-range models: Instruments with enhanced features such as high-resolution measurements, multiple apertures, UV light sources, or cloud integration can cost between AED 10,000 and AED 25,000.
- Advanced or professional UV-Vis spectrophotometers: Designed for chemical analysis, research, and quality control, these can exceed AED 50,000, especially when including extended warranties, calibration services, and additional accessories.

Factors Influencing Cost

- Technology and Features: High-resolution detection, upgraded color analysis, and data management systems increase the price.
- Accessories: Sample holders, calibration standards, and multiple aperture plates can add to the cost.
- Brand and Supplier: International brands like Thermo Fisher Scientific, Eutech Instruments, and Pol-Eko Aparatura are generally more expensive than local or generic models.
- Support and Warranty: Extended warranty, local calibration, and after-sales service in Dubai can influence the final price.

Where to Buy in Dubai

- Online retailers: Amazon.ae lists various spectrophotometers with prices and stock availability.
- Specialized suppliers: Whizz Others Store and Easy Lab provide a wide range of spectrophotometers from multiple brands with delivery across the UAE.
- Analytical instrument distributors: MaxMed and Testron Group offer professional UV-Vis and benchtop spectrophotometers with local support and training.
