

Malta electrical distribution box manufacturers

AI Overview

Darmanin Supplies, BigMat Malta, Hydroelectric, and Malta Technical Services are key providers of electrical distribution boxes in Malta. Key Suppliers and Manufacturers

Darmanin Supplies offers a wide range of electrical products, including distribution boards and protective devices. They feature high-quality brands such as POLOMAX and FANSKI, catering to residential, commercial, and industrial applications with a focus on safety and reliability.

BigMat Malta supplies various consumer units and distribution boxes, including the Marlanvil Surface Distribution Box and Jangar Waterproof Boxes, which are IP-rated for outdoor use and designed for durability and protection of electrical components.

Hydroelectric Ltd provides consumer units, distribution boards, and panels suitable for different electrical installations, emphasizing quality and compliance with local standards.

Malta Technical Services specializes in metal enclosures and boxes of various sizes, offering solutions for both industrial and commercial electrical setups.

Considerations When selecting a distribution box in Malta, consider:

- IP rating for water and dust protection (e.g., IP55, IP65)
- Material: plastic vs. metal enclosures
- Size and module capacity for your installation needs
- Brand reputation and local support for maintenance and compliance

These suppliers provide a range of options suitable for different applications, ensuring both safety and regulatory compliance in Malta.
