

Nordic optical cable

Overview

The fiber optic cable manufacturing industry in the Nordics is pivotal for enhancing global connectivity. This sector produces high-performance cabling systems for telecommunications, internet, and data transfer applications. IOEMA is a state-of-the-art, high-capacity, 1400 km repeatered submarine fibre optic project that will arc across five key northern European markets: the UK, The Netherlands, Germany, Denmark and Norway, supporting critical infrastructure security with full armouring and burial. Our business is to build and maintain the basic fiber infrastructure and. Navigator Nordic delivers optical transceivers, components and data center solutions for the Nordic market, with expert support, fast service and lifetime warranty. The IOEMA cable system consists of a trunk route, connecting Dumpton Gap, UK with Kristiansand, Norway and three branches, connecting. With state-of-the-art fibre sensing technology, the two cables proposed to connect Northern Europe to Asia and North America will contribute to science and even warn against potential threats to the cable itself. Not only will Arctic subsea connections strengthen European digital sovereignty. Over the past five years or so, the tables have turned completely – now we are.
