

Pricing of tray-type cable trays in North Africa

AI Overview

Cable tray prices in North Africa typically range from $15 to $120 per 2.44-meter section, depending on material, type, and load capacity.

Overview of Cable Tray Types and Materials

Cable trays are essential for organizing and supporting electrical, communication, and data cables. The main materials used include galvanized steel, stainless steel, and aluminum, each offering different levels of corrosion resistance and durability (sources from Kenya and South Africa).

Common types include:

- Ladder trays: Ideal for heavy-duty industrial or commercial installations, providing maximum ventilation and support for large cables.
- Perforated trays: Offer moderate airflow while maintaining cable protection, suitable for commercial and light industrial use.
- Solid bottom trays: Provide enhanced protection for sensitive environments like data centers or control rooms.
- Wire mesh trays: Flexible and easy to access, commonly used in office spaces and commercial buildings.

Price Ranges

Based on regional suppliers in East and Southern Africa, which can serve as a reference for North Africa:

- Galvanized steel ladder trays: Approximately $50–$120 per 8-foot (2.44 m) section, depending on width and load capacity.
- Perforated trays: Around $30–$80 per section, suitable for moderate cable loads.
- Solid bottom trays: Typically $60–$100 per section, offering maximum protection.
- Wire mesh trays: Usually $15–$50 per section, ideal for light-duty applications.

Prices vary based on thickness (0.6mm to 3.0mm), width (25–600mm), and height (50–600mm), as well as local import duties, shipping, and supplier markups.

Considerations for North Africa

Material choice: Stainless steel is preferred in coastal or humid areas to prevent corrosion.

Application: Industrial facilities may require ladder or solid bottom trays, while commercial buildings often use perforated or wire mesh trays.

Supplier options: Local distributors and regional s...
