

Where can I find wire mesh cable trays in Finland

AI Overview

Wire mesh cable trays are available from suppliers such as Onninen, GroupSumi, and Jeetmull Jaichandlall in Finland. Key Suppliers

1. Onninen Onninen offers a variety of mesh cable trays suitable for industrial, commercial, and residential installations. Their products include wire shelves with mounting hardware, available in different lengths and color finishes. Onninen also provides technical specifications such as support spacing and load safety factors, making it suitable for professional installations. You can browse their selection online and locate the nearest store in Finland.
2. GroupSumi GroupSumi provides a wide range of wire mesh cable trays, including Aiscan brand trays. Their trays are made from high-quality materials like galvanized or stainless steel, ensuring durability and heat dissipation. They offer modular designs, easy installation, and accessories for extensions, curves, and level changes. GroupSumi caters to both industrial and residential projects, making it a versatile option for different needs.
3. Jeetmull Jaichandlall (Wiremeshes.com) This supplier specializes in perforated and wire mesh cable trays in Finland. They offer a variety of sizes, shapes, and colors, with a focus on high-quality manufacturing and adherence to industry standards. Their products are suitable for heavy-duty applications and are designed to withstand wear and tear over time.

Considerations When Choosing Wire Mesh Cable Trays

- Material: Galvanized steel or stainless steel for durability and corrosion resistance.
- Size and Load Capacity: Choose trays based on cable volume and weight.
- Ventilation: Grid design allows airflow to prevent overheating.
- Installation Accessories: Ensure the supplier provides brackets, fasteners, and extensions for flexible installation.
- Project Type: Industrial, commercial, or residential requirements may influence tray selection.
